Seattle, Washington

. . . From the hallowed halls . . .

Loch, the Scottish word for lake, has been chosen as the name of Shorecrest's annual because it is compatible with our theme and with Shorecrest's lakeside setting. The 63 Loch reflects the widening scope of activities which are bringing our school to maturity.

Principal's Message

Throughout the past two years we have all shared a great common experience. This "shake-down-cruise" at Shorecrest High School has produced many fine academic and extracurricular traditions. Both students and faculty have responded enthusiastically to this challenge and have developed a keen sense of pride, loyalty, and school spirit that will continue to grow as we prepare to graduate the class of 1964. It is my hope that this enthusiasm will become one of the strongest traditions at Shorecrest High School.

Shorecrest's first annual staff has been working continually throughout the year to meet various deadlines for the '63 Loch. The staff, headed by Jon Stables, editor, and advised by Mr. David Wagar met three times during the week in order to do the necessary work. Among the various jobs of the staff members were laying out pages, writing copy, locating people in pictures, and typing.

in their accomplishments

The Highland Piper has grown immensely since last year. At the beginning of the year only one paper was being produced per month; since February, a newspaper has been published every two weeks. This year the Piper staff was accepted by the Pacific Slope School Press, a cooperative organization for high school staffs.

The purpose of the newspaper staff is to report on school life and student activities; but more importantly, the staff members acquire much experience that can be of great value in their adult years.

Band and Orchestra

The 55 members of the Highlander band put forth an exceptional program this year. Their repertoire ranged from Bach to rousing marches and popular selections. Their most noted performances included the Christmas Concert, Junior High Program, and the Spring Concert. Members of both band and orchestra performed in the Solo and Ensemble contest March 2, 1963.

The Shorecrest orchestra, Directed by Mr. Tom Rodrigue, is made up of members of excellent ratings and achievement. The orchestra has performed at several school assemblies and at the evening Christmas Program. The members took a field trip, early in February to watch the Seattle Symphony Orchestra during rehearsal. During the spring the members participated in the Solo and Ensemble Contest.

CHOIR

Shorecrest's mixed choral group, the Orchadians, experienced a full year under the direction of Mr. Leonard Moore. The choir helped to provide seasonal spirit and inspiration through its programs at Christmas and Easter. Months of preparation and vigorous effort, with the cooperation of the Drama Club and the music department, culminated in the spring musical production, Lerner and Loewe's Brigadoon.

Junior Prom was our biggest social event

The first Junior Prom at Shorecrest was held on Saturday, May 11, 1963. The dance, "Younger than Springtime" started at 9:00 and ended at 12:00. The committees and their chairmen were as follows: Bonnie Braaten, entertainment; Nancy Elfson and Pat Entler, publicity; Linda Love and Penny Thurman, decorations; Chris Marshall, refreshments. The dress was dark suits and semi-formals.

Shorecrest's Boys' Club and Girls' Club

Girls' Club Officers are:
Laird, Kyles, Bloodworth.

Shorecrest Girls' Club provides an opportunity for every girl student to take an active part in club work through the committees.

March 2 was the Girls' Club Tolo. The theme was "Gieshas' Chapingo" which is Japanese. This affair was semi-formal. The Viceroys played for the tolo and pictures were taken of couples who payed for them.

Girls' Club Chairmen are Fitzgerald, Lloyd Bishop, Stanaway, Johnson, Minard, Wilison.

Dancing are Karen Wilison, Daryl Holland, Nancy Fitzpatrick, Mark Allison.

The Latin Club, officially known as the Junior Classical League, meets twice a month to view slides and to participate in Latin events. Members of this club gain a more complete understanding of the language by conversing with other members in Latin.

Slave week, sponsored in the spring by the Latin Club, was an event in which the entire school participated. The club also held a Christmas party, Saturnalia. This spring, our Latin Club was the guest of Roosevelt High School, for a Roman Banquet.

There are 32 members in the club. Officers are: Diane Lawton and Eddie Brophy, Consuls; Mary Rainforth, Scribe; and Sandra McChesney, Quanestor. The advisor is Mrs. Jean Galloway.

The Drama Club is responsible for the presentations and plays at Shorecrest. The club is coached by Mr. Gary Zimmerman, member of the Drama Club at the University of Washington. Mr. Zimmerman is concerned mainly with the job of directing the actors. The faculty advisor, Miss Caryle Smith, deals with other aspects of production. The club has a membership of 20.

The Drama Club did the narration for the Christmas program. They also presented The Curious Savage in February.

Many of the members also took part in the musical, Brigadoon, in May.

Highlanders proved their worth in debating,

The members of the Debate Club represent Shorecrest in interscholastic debate competition. As members of the Metro Debate League, the club attends invitational tournaments on college and university campuses all over the state. The Debate Club is a stimulating extracurricular activity which proves to be not only interesting but educational as well.

Cross-country goes Metro

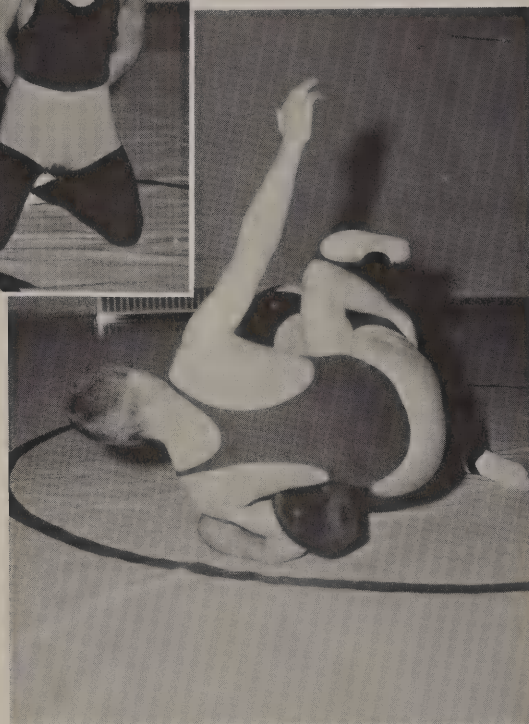

Competing against varsity teams in the Metro League, Shorecrest's Cross Country did an astounding job in winning three meets and losing five. Perhaps the most outstanding members of the team were Randy Fulton and Tony Wittmeyer. Seven of the boys received Cross Country letters and Andy Slatt received a special Inspiration award. with excitement on Metro play

Student loyalty and enthusiasm spurred Shorecrest's hoopsters on to fine performances on the basketball floor. What was lacking pointwise was made up in spirit and good sportsmanship. An outstanding member of the varsity team for 1963 was Dave Boeitker. Named Metro Player of the Week by the Seattle Times, Boeitker also received honorable mention on the All-Metro Team.

Sophomores offered starting linemen Tim Jones and Danny McGill to the varsity squad. Backed by their teammates and members of the Jayvee, sophomore, and freshman teams, these boys promise strong competition for future rival Metro teams.

The freshman squad finished second in the Sno-King League, and the Junior Varsity, while not as successful, gained valuable experience for next season.

Highlander pep squads helped

Throughout the year Shorecrest's yell leaders and song leaders worked hard to promote school spirit among the Highlanders. The contagious enthusiasm displayed by the '62 varsity cheerleaders in football, and our first Metro cheerleaders gave encouragement to our hard-working teams.

This year's football songleaders, Diane Bowser, Joann Parente, Jadyne Bowen, Patty Emigh, and Pat Jones were chosen for last year, and helped us get off to a good start for the '62 football season. The yell leaders, Phil Creore, Rick Anderson, Steve Anderson, Dave Swanson, and Don Swanson, assisted the song leaders in their original routines and did their own yells too.

For varsity basketball, Debbie Beresford, Anita Maehl, Linda Stokes, Angela Fitzgerald, Carol Rodgers, Karen Currier, and Pattie Valentine, were chosen from the many who tried out. Assisting them and leading yells were Steve Anderson, Rick Anderson, Andy Slatt, Phil Creore, and Mike Pitcher.

Gymnastics and Track

After rough competition this season, the gymnastics team came up with 5 wins and 4 losses. At a state invitational meet in Pullman on February 23, four team members received high ratings in five events. These were Phil Creore, Greg Anderson, Rich Hill and Ed East.

Each member has devoted many hours of practice, building up routines. Coach Pattison is confident that the team will rate high in next year's competition.

Shorecrest's baseball teams initiate

As the Loch went to print, the Baseball season was just beginning and therefore little information was available as to the progress of the teams. Early practice games indicated that much practice would be in store for all groups. However, considering the material with which Coach Anderson has to work with this year, a good season seems inevitable.

Summing up the year, Mr. David Niemiec, golf coach, stated: "This has been a year in which our boys have been able to get their feet wet."
